

Paying for Dry Cleaning of Juli's Clothing after Damage at Island House

Proposal offered by CNGCS (Supervisor Jennifer Scheck) on March 14, 2016.

Ms Scheck stated that she had conferred with "Nassau County".
(Specifically, Office of Mental Health, Chemical Dependency & Developmental Disabilities.)

Ms Scheck described the "solution" agreed upon by Harleen Ruthen of that office:

Three organizations -- CNGCS, PSCH, Nassau County -- to pay $500 each;

Juli to pay the remainder of cost ($685.85);

Juli to pay all late fees ($549.46 at time of proposal).

Ms Scheck noted that "the late fees are your responsibility, not ours."

I pointed out that none of the cost was my responsibility, and that late costs in particular were due to CNGCS's delay in making payment.

As proposed by CNGCS - cost alone				As proposed by CNGCS - cost & fees
	CNGCS	$500.00	22.87%		CNGCS	$500.00	18.28%
	PSCH	$500.00	22.87%		PSCH	$500.00	18.28%
	Nassau Cty	$500.00	22.87%		Nassau Cty	$500.00	18.28%
	Juli	$685.85	31.38%		Juli	$685.85	25.07%
					Juli	$549.46	20.09%
total: $2,185.85				total: $2,735.31

I asked if PSCH had been involved with this "solution". Ms Scheck said No.

I asked whether there was anything written from the County or PSCH that promised these payments. Ms Scheck said No.

Ms Scheck proffered a 'hold-harmless' agreement, explained that I must sign it before PSCH would make payment.

NOTE:

If the three organizations (CNGCS, PSCH, and Nassau County) had simply split the entire bill equally amongst themselves: $911.77 per organization
